J. W. SCHORR'S LUCKY DAY

HORSES FROM MEMPHIS MAN'S ESTABLISH MENT WIN THREE STAKES AT WOODBINE.

Ed Crump Takes the Juvenile, David Craig the Woodstock Plate and Edda the Queen's Hotel Handicap-Another Big Crowd in Attendance.

Toronto, Ont., May 25.—John W. Schorr had a field day of it at Woodbine this afternoon. The colors of the Memphis tarfman were carried to victory in three stakes—Ed Crump winning the Juventle Stakes, David Craig the Woodstock Plate and Edda the Queen's Hotel Cup. Ed Crump won his race in easy fashion, beating the Benwell colt. Sir Edgar, by a couple of iengths. David Craig's victory was mexpected by the horsemen in general, who looked to see Amos Turney's supposed crack. Waterbass, prove an easy winner. The stable connections, however, were confident that David Craig would show a good performance and, under a well-judged ride by Hanover, the Schorr colt beat Waterbass, a scant length. David Craig was certainly the better of the two this afternoon. On the first turn he was jammed against the inside rail and apteared to be hopelessly crowded out of it. On the turn out of the backstretch he began to gain on the leaders and, in a long, hard stretch drive, outgamed the tiring Waterbass. Excuses were made by the latter's admirers, who claimed that the colt was short. The two probably will meet again on Saturday in the Toronto Cup.

The Woodstock Plate has been a fixture since 1885, when Courtolema won it. Its hatery since 1900 is given in the table below:

Run at one nile until 1908.

The best finish of the afternoon came with the running of the steeplechase and young Lewis Garth again furnished the winner, in W. L. Maupin's Idle Michael. The latter was a distant trailer until the last half nile, when he began to close and he just did manage to get up in the final stride to win by a head from Kingcash.

Another large crowd was in attendance and, while It may not have been so great as that of the opening day, it was just as enthusiastic. Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, were again present.

ing day, it was just as enthusiastic. Their Royal Highnesses, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught, were again present.

The Goodwood Plate, which called for Canadian-bred two-year-olds, was won in easy fashion by C. S. Campbell's Linsin, which heat Harry Bassett H., the brother to Beehive, by three lengths. The latter is a colt of immense size and conformation. He weighs in the neighborhood of 1,050 pounds. In today's race he ran greenly, propping at the start and dropping back. He closed a big gap and at the finish was going much faster than the winner.

Jockey Butwell returned to New York tonight, so as to be on hand to ride The Masquerader at Belmont Park tomorrow. Incidentally, Ral Parr has refused an offer of $15,000 for The Masquerader, which was made at Pimlico on Saturday last.

It has been decided not to ship the great three-year-old Luke McLuke to Woodbine to fill his engagement in the Toronto Cup on Saturday. The colt will go to Dorval Park to start in the $20,000 Derby, which will be run during the June meeting at that track.

William Snyder, one of starter Dade's assistants, will leave here Friday night to do the starting on the opening day at Blue Bonnets.

Jockey G. W. Carroll was an arrival this morning. He will ride for J. B. Respess up here.

Secretary Albert Strowger of the Hamilton Jockey Club, was an arrival. He reports that the Hamilton track is in splendid condition, Also that the crack three-year-olds, Old Rosebud and Luke McLuke, will be starters in the Hamilton Derby.

There will be a meeting of the stewards of the Canadian Racing Associations on Saturday, when the case of fockey Eddie Taplin will be taken up, together with other important business.

SEVERAL JOCKEYS LOSE THEIR LICENSES.

New York, May 25.—The stewards of the Jockey Club have again refused a license to Tommy McTaggart, who rode for August Belmont last year, McTaggart, who was set down last fall for rough riding at Laurel, has been extremely penitent and confidently expected to get his license in time to begin riding at Belmont Park.

He was not the only rider to feel the hand of discipline, for the stewards revoked the licenses of Charles Borel and Roscoe Goose. Both these boys had their licenses taken away by the Kentucky State Racing Commission, and the action of the Jockey Club stewards was in support of the Kentucky governing body.

Other jockeys denied licenses are Roy Mentry, Frank Adams and Eddie Taplin. Adams was punished for his part in the running of J. H. Barr at Norfolk last fall, when the horse showed inconsistency. Mentry's application was denied on a report from Pimlico, and Taplin came under official displeasure on a report from the west.

Hugh Penny, who holds the contract on the noted lightweight jockey Johnny McTaggart and who formerly trained for W. M. Sheedy, had his trainer's license suspended pending a hearing by the license committee. The trouble arose when former jockey James Reed, who was mixed up in the scandal which led to the revoking of jockey J. Wilson's license last fall, was noticed around the stable in which Sheedy's horses. Tay Pay, Perthrock and Duncraig, were kept. At the time this was noticed the horse also were suspended. The horses have now been reinstated, but the stewards require an explanation from Penny as to his relations with Reed.

The appeal of Capt. E. B. Cassatt from the ruling of the stewards at Pimlico in refusing him explanation from Fenny as to his relations with Reed.

The appeal of Capt. E. B. Cassatt from the ruling of the stewards at Pimlico, in refusing him permission to start Trial by Jury in the Clabaugh Memorial, was laid on the table pending further information on the subject. The Clabaugh Memorial is a race for two-year-olds bred in Virginia, Maryland and Pennsylvania. The entry of Trial by Jury was accepted, and at the eleventh hour permission to start him was refused. The stewards of the meeting based their ruling on the fact that Princess Chic, the dam of Trial by Jury, had been mated to Fair Play in Kentucky and held that fact to bar the colt from such a race.

The applications of P. A. Dwyer, J. P. McAdams and John E. Rowe for trainers' licenses were denied. THE WORLD'S GREATEST RACE AT HAND.

The Epsom Derby will be run Wednesday afternoen. The scratching of The Tetrarch deprived the great race of a measure of its interest, but insures more starters than would have contested it had be been sent to the post. His withdrawal served to make Kennymore a firm favorite. At latest advice he was at 2 to 1 in the betting. However, the running of the Newmarket Stakes, May 13. led to the conclusion that King George's colt, Brakespear, is vested with better than an outside chance for carrying off the "Blue Riband of the Turf." In the Two Thousand Guineas Kennymore only defeated Corcyra by the narrowest of margins in a desperately-contested finish. On the date named Corcyra won the Newmarket Stakes at a mile and a quarter. He was the favorite at 1 to 4 and Brakespear was at 20 to 1, but Corcyra only defeated him by a few inches, the mile and a quarter being run in 2:014% and each colt carrying 126 pounds. Brakespear is a colt of uncertain temper, but, if in the mood to do his best, may give King George the same triumph with which in 1909 Minoru delighted his father.

C. F. M. or H., Chicago. No newspaper in Europe publishes past performances as fully as does Daily Racing Form. In England they are printed by The Sportsman, 139 Fleet St., London, Eng., and in France by Le Jockey, 142 Rue Montmartre, Paris, France.

G. B., Chicago, You must be more explicit. There is no record of Horeafter and Warfare winning races on the same day on a New York track. March S. 1908, Warfare won the first race at Oakland, Cal., at 7 to 1, and Hereafter the sixth race at 8 to 1. So far that is the only record showing the two horses to have won the same day.

Heat Wave.

Louisville, Ky., May 25.—Extremely warm weather which prevailed today, had no effect on the attendance and one of the largest Monday crowds that has ever witnessed racing at Douglas Park was on hand. The racing was brilliant and several of hie finishes being close enough to util the most exacting. Fast time was the order. Flying Feet, in winning the closing dash, equaled Melton Street's track record of 1:51% for one mile and an eighth. Speculation was heavy throughout and good prices prevailed against the winsers.

The purse race at one mile and a sixteenth went to John Gund, which ruled favorite over Magnet and Dr. Samuel. The winner lead for the entire trip and stood off challenges offered by Tavolara, Dr. Samuel and Magnet.

For rough siding in the opening dash, when he caused a mixue immediately after the start, jockey Nicol was suspended for five days by the stewards.

Jockey Kederis, who is under contract to ride for Belmont Park. Kederis has been riding in excellent form in Kentucky.

The United States Supreme Court today dismissed for want of jurisdiction the plea in error of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad against Catesby Woodford and John T. Ireland, whose carload of horses, en route from Lexington to Juarez, were burned. The lower court awarded the horsemen Court, by its ruling today, practically confirmed the lower court's decision.

Trainer John F, Schorr stated today that an injury sustained by Luke McLuke in the Kentucky Handicap was of sight consequence and that he would walk out of his lameness in a few days and be shipped to New York next Sunday, according to present intentions.

E. R. Bradley will ship several of his racers back to Idle Hour farm near Lexington and the remainder of his big string will be taken to Latonia for the racing there and latter transferred to Empire City and Saratoga.

C. S. Wilson, G. B. Morris, J. Umensetter and Hickey & Cloher will ship their racing strings at the close of the Douglas Park meeting to Denver for a summer campaign on western tracks.

GOSSIP FROM BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., May 25.—James B. Haggin today concluded his annual spring visit to Elmendorf Farm and returned to New York. His nineteen thoroughbred yearlings to be sold at Sheepshead Bay will be shipped from here in charge of George Miller. Lady Lindsay died at Elmendorf a few days ago in foaling a chestnut filly, the last of the get of Star Ruby. The filly lived and is being suckled by a shire mare. Two valuable foals, both colts, died of colic last week. One was by Waterhoy—Fragrant and the other by Hossian—Bleachers, Fantasma is the only mare yet to foal at Elmendorf, She will have a colt or filly by Waterboy and that will make thirty-eight foals of this season at that farm.

GOSSIP AND COMMENT FROM KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Ky., May 25.—Bronzewing, by her series of three brilliant victories in the Ashland Oaks, the Blue Grass Stakes, and the Kentucky Oaks, looms up as a contender for honor in the coming Latonia Derby though her weight in that event at one mile and a half will be 124 pounds. Bronzewing races as if the further the distance the better it suits her.

Bronzewing cost A. P. Humphrey, Jr. $200 as a yearling. She is easily the best of her sex and age now on the turf. In appearance Bronzewing is a trim cut filly of the greyhound type. She is a slow beginner in her races, although in her morning trials she can sprint fast. Then, however, her rider can always balance her properly as she breaks, which cannot always be done in a race. Once she is settled in her stride she closes ground fast and apparently can run all the quarters in a race alike. Her trainer, Dan Lehan has had marked success with horses in the last few years, Casey Jones having been another of his good developments. He also brought Sir Catesby back to the races as an old horse good enough to win the Latonia Cup last season. Besides the Latonia Derby, Bronzewing is entered in other events at Latonia, including the Inaugural and Independence Handicaps and the Merchants' Stakes. There is little likelihood of her starting in the latter event, as it is of the selling variety, and she is out of that class now.

Trainer John F. Schorr picked Bronzewing last fall as the best prospect for a three-year-old filly of Oaks class this season. The Schorr stable has no three-year-old filly and for that reaon young Mr. Schorr fried to secure that daughter of Stafwart. He was advised that her owner. A. P. Humphrey, Jr., would not sell any performer of promise for any reasonable amount. Mr. Humphrey is a member of a distinguished family of this city and is a graduate at law. In fact he started his career in that profession, but the attraction of an outdoor life and the fact that he is himself a good rider caused him to take to horses as a recreation. For a while he c he is not hunting any contest for her with Bronzewing.

Trainer William Sallee feels sure that he will bring F. J. Pons' Judge Wright back to the races in winning form. The great four-year-old has been showing abundant speed in his trials so far and invariably pulls up sound. This son of Superman has not started since he was a two-year-old in 1912. He was unbeaten that season and went wrong in training before it was actually known just how good he really was. He was hailed as a champion and Sallee now thinks, as does owner Pons, that he will shine this year as one of the greatest horses in training. He is a grand looking horse and covers the ground in his work like a piece of machinery. If he stands training it probably will take a great horse to beat him.

The Kentucky Handieap being over, interest machinery. If he stands training it probably will take a great horse to beat him.

The Kentucky Handicap being over, interest centers in the Memorial Handicap, $2,000 added, six furlongs, to be run Saturday. The weights for this event will be announced Thursday and among the fifty entries are some of the speediest sprinters in training, including Boots and Saddle, Hawthorn, Casuarina, Bringhurst, Great Britain, Casey Jones, Sebago, Semprite, Presumption. The Widow Moon, Leochares, Luke McLuke, Hodge, Whilbite and Meridian. Caugh Hill, last season's winner of this event, is eligible, but the report is current that this great son of Caughnawaga has gone wrong again in training.

In the absence of Secretary E. W. Maginn, ni assistant, Jack Campbell, is doing effective work in the office at Douglas Park. He has long been familiar with the duties required of him and is well equipped to fill the place during the enforced absence of Secretary Maginn, who will be able to resume his duties during the closing days of the meeting.

Trainer John Lowe has shipped to Lexington to be restred until full, three of the two vew relds he resume his duties during the closing days of the meeting.

Trainer John Lowe has shipped to Lexington to be rested until fall, three of the two-year-olds he has been training for the eastern turfman, James Butter. They are Skip, Mind the Paint and Apple. All the other Butter juveniles in John Lowe's stable, including the unbeaten filly, Climber, winner of four stakes in five races won, will remain in Kentucky to race at Douglas Park and Latonia. "Spider" Allen took these three-year-olds to Lexington for trainer Lowe and will go from there to New York in charge of the seven yearlings recently purchased for Mr. Butter by Price McKimey. They will be looked after in the east by trainer Richard Benson. Mr. Butter is still in the market to secure any promising racing prospects to fortify his stable for the two-year-old, fill is Latonia engagements, which include the Harold Stakes and the Cincinnati Trophy. The son of Ultimus is afflicted with splints.

H. I. Wilson, manager of the Butte and Anaconda race tracks in Montana, has engaged Dr. C. Cann to officiate as paddock Judge at the Montana courses.

W. S. Heath, who sold his good three-year-old, othello, in a recent paddock sale at Churchill Downs, has for the time being retired from the turf to promote an automobile patent in which he has an interest.

in New York from Pimlico Sunday—came direct from the track for the Belmont Park meeting—where I will be connected with one of the shrewdest trainers in the east, and an operator whose private interests I will handle, when he is ready to put something big over. While the Pimlico meeting was in its prime, this trainer took charge of a three-year-old which, owing to bad handling, dropped back in the rut and has done nothing for some time, but as a two-year-old was considered a crack. This selling plater is now in shape for an

and was shipped to Belmont Park for the clean-up. This one I can conservatively say has astonished This one I can conservatively say has astonished all who had been fortunate enough to be declared in on the deal. They have been at Belmont Park long enough to thoroughly acclimate this animal and bring out the best. He is now dead ripe and, since here, has demonstrated time and again a high turn of speed. This one has shown good form under all track conditions. This coup will take place
